

Therapist | Xenia Group

About Xenia Group

Xenia Group is a Therapy Practice focused on healing the individual and supporting the community. We supply Individual, Couples, Families and Groups. Xenia works to provide workshops for clients and look to provide other resources as needed. We strive to support the employees who work to make our clients feel safe and understood.

About the role

This position will entail therapy work with Individuals and potentially Couples, Families and Groups. Therapists will work to have basic therapy skills supported through regular Supervision by experienced licensed therapists. They will be given opportunities to further their knowledge of different populations and modalities through provided trainings and training scholarships. Therapists will be given an opportunity of no less than 4 CEU's per month provided free of charge by the Practice. The position will report to the Directors of the Practice. Pay will be starting at a competitive rate with the option of raises going forward. Directors will be working to provide additional benefits as the practice grows and as therapist caseloads become more consistent.

Responsibilities

- Establish healthy, boundaries therapeutic relationships with clients and community
- Support and advocate for client's mental health
- Create individualized treatment plans
- Conduct assessments as needed
- Document session notes in a timely and thorough manner
- Maintain a basic grounded therapeutic knowledge of up-to-date therapeutic practices
- Make referrals for additional resources when needed

Location & commitments

- Looking for Full-time (30+hours) or Part-time (anything less than 30), preferably for commitment of 1 year
- Location will be in North Orem as well as with Telehealth options.

Candidate requirements

- Candidate needs to have their Graduate School Degree from an accredited University (please see additional posting on Therapy Intern if this is not yet completed)
- Candidate will need to be available for additional trainings/ Supervisions weekly

Contact us to apply

Please contact Hailey Maire or Taylor Madsen- available through email office@xeniacounseling.org